

LSR Alumni Association (ELSA) launches Digital Legal Resource at 5th ELSA AGM

8 September 2018, New Delhi: Senior advocate and Additional Solicitor General of India, Dr. Pinky Anand launched a legal resources platform for women at the 5th LSR Alumni Association-ELSA dinner in Delhi last Saturday. Speaking on the occasion Dr. Anand, an LSR alumna herself, said that the platform is a unique initiative that aims at enhancing awareness amongst women of their legal rights, be it in the institution of marriage, at the work-place or crimes against women. The platform will provide access to digitised legal resources at one portal to all alumni of Lady Shri Ram College (LSR). Over 300 alumni and special invitees attended the event at The Suryaa Hotel, Delhi including Dr. Meenakshi Gopinath, Principal Emerita-LSR & Founder and Director WISCOMP, Herbal Queen Shahnaz Hussain, MD Tata Coffee Mr. Sanjiv Sarin and Mrs. Rashmi Misra, Founder Vidya.

A partnership between Sheroes, a women's community platform, and ELSA -Lady Shri Ram College Alumni Association was also announced. Ms. Deepti Beri, CCO Sheroes, addressed the gathering and explained how the tie up is meant to facilitate empowerment of women through technology and digital platforms. The collaboration also includes mentoring through the ELSA Global Mentorship Forum and the Sheroes Mentoring platform to address issues on a wide range of topics such as health, skilling and careers, entrepreneurship, leadership and gender parity.

A Wellness Lounge where some of the alumni showcased their products, a silent auction for Coorg flood victims, a breathtaking Chhau dance performance by the Sadhya group, saree draping in traditional Coorg style, were the other highlights of the evening hosted by Shivani Wazir Pasrich, also an LSR alumna. There was also much cheering with cake-cutting as alumni celebrated the golden jubilee (1968) and silver jubilee (1993) batches. Much dancing followed with the alumni of this illustrious college letting their hair down.

Earlier in the day ELSA held its Annual General Body Meet (AGM) at the college campus where they were warmly hosted by Dr. Suman Sharma, Principal LSR who graciously welcomed all the alumni. With extremely active chapters in Bangalore, Mumbai, the Gulf and London, ELSA is working towards its goal of driving social change through the empowerment of women.
